ANOs play a very important role in our cadets life. They help un in making their responsible citizens and also teach them the importance of discipline. The use ANOs have always taken pain in molding their vadets and are tought to steam their helping hand to their students when they need guidance. They have not only guided their cadets will exemplary dedication but also are always ready by value the extra mile to see the cadets under their watch excel in all fields. They have been the backbone of the functioning of NCC activities in their mats in the past Not only the professional subjects of NCC training but these individuals have been at the forefront in executing, along with their cadets, of various social service oriented activities like Swachs Barart, Blood Denation, Eye Dolasson, And Chur abuse campaign, aforectation, road safety, save the glir child and many such campaigns. We are proud to have such destinated individuals as Others yet.

We in the NCC at the Jalandhar Group are striving hard to give direction to the cadets facilitate them to settle well in life. Our training is focused on the overall development of the youth under our charge and inculcate in them, the values discipline and conflidence to make them future ready as also responsible officers, not only of the state of Funjab but also of our belowed exentry.
